✠ Fourth Gift of Advent: Hope That Lasts

Blessed are those who trust in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. They shall be like a tree planted by water sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit.

Jeremiah 17:7-8

One day while on retreat, I made a trek across a barren stretch and up a difficult slope to stand on top of a high hill. As I walked, the whole area seemed desolate and empty. But once atop the hill I got another view. From there, in the distance I could see the outline of a currently dry riverbed. It was easily visible because all along its dry banks, life abounded. From high above, the riverbed was like a ribbon of green and gold. In the brilliant sunshine, green and gold leaves fluttered on trees and shrubs, whose roots stretched out to be watered by the stream when the rains came. These roots must have gone deep to sustain such abundant life even during a long, dry season. Advent is a time to sink our spiritual roots deep, to let them stretch out to God, the source of all life. Because we are thus connected with God, we too can be sources of life to others in the way we live our daily life. Christmas is not only the season of receiving gifts; it is even more so the season of taking delight in giving to others. We emulate what God has done for us and in that we find our deepest joy. Let us prepare, then, to be generous in offering our family, co-workers, and neighbours spiritual gifts such as patience, prudence, encouragement, counsel, faith, hope, and love. There's a spiritual adage that says, "You can't give what you haven't got." The gift offered during this last week of Advent is the gift of hope. Let us drink deeply of the spiritual gift of hope that God offers us. Then we can cherish within us the spirit of Christmas and bring to others the blessings of the Christ Child every day of the year. We can easily become impatient with God and with one another. Living in hope means being willing to live courageously day to day. The signs of change in us will most likely be subtle. Living in hope means that while Jesus has already come, we are still in the process of letting him complete the journey into our hearts.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
*All bow: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
Who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen

Just for a Laugh

Here are some Christmas tree Jokes:

- ☺ What did the Christmas tree do after its bank closed?
It started his own branch.
- ☺ How do Christmas trees get their email? They log-on.
- ☺ Why did the Christmas tree go to the dentist?
It needed a root canal!
- ☺ What did Luke Skywalker say after he planted a Christmas tree farm? May the forest be with you!
- ☺ How did the two rival Christmas trees get along?
They signed a peace tree-ty!
- ☺ How do Christmas trees get ready for a night out? They spruce up!

and
suddenly there was with the angel
a multitude of
the heavenly host praising God
and saying Glory to God
in the highest, and on earth
peace, goodwill toward men
