✠ Resumes of Apostles

To: Jesus, Son of Joseph
Woodcrafter's Carpenter Shop
Nazareth 25922
From: Jordan Management Consultants

Dear Sir:

Thank you for submitting the resumes of the twelve men you have picked for managerial positions in your new organization. All of them have now taken our battery of tests; and we have not only run the results through our computer, but also arranged personal interviews for each of them with our psychologist and vocational aptitude consultant. The profiles of all tests are included, and you will want to study each of them carefully. As part of our service, we make some general comments for your guidance, much as an auditor will include some general statements. This is given as a result of staff consultation, and comes without any additional fee. It is the staff opinion that most of your nominees are lacking in background, education and vocational aptitude for the type of enterprise you are undertaking. They do not have the team concept. We would recommend that you continue your search for persons of experience in managerial ability and proven capability.

Simon Peter is emotionally unstable and given to fits of temper. Andrew has absolutely no qualities of leadership. The two brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, place personal interest above company loyalty. Thomas demonstrates a questioning attitude that would tend to undermine morale. We feel that it is our duty to tell you that Matthew had been blacklisted by the Greater Jerusalem Better Business Bureau; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus definitely have radical leanings, and they both registered a high score on the manic-depressive scale.

One of the candidates, however, shows great potential. He is a man of ability and resourcefulness, meets people well, has a keen business mind, and has contacts in high places. He is highly motivated, ambitious, and responsible. We recommend Judas Iscariot as your controller and right-hand man. All of the other profiles are self-explanatory.

We wish you every success in your new venture.

Sincerely,
Jordan Management Consultants

The Holy Week of Tension

If we were real-time followers of Jesus and getting ready to go up with him to Jerusalem, we would soon be in for the shock of our lives. First, however, there would be the triumphant entry into the holy city and the joyous shouts of welcome from the crowds. That might lull us into thinking that Our Lord was about to establish an earthly kingdom and send the Romans packing. But the winds would change quickly. Shouts of "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord" would within days give way to shouts of "Crucify him! Crucify him!" The abrupt shift was devastating to his disciples. But not to Our Lord, who knew well the fickleness of human beings. "Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well" (John 2:24-25). One lesson of Holy Week is not to put our trust in the praise of the world. The second, and more uplifting lesson, is that God's love and mercy endures despite the hardness of so many hearts. Good Friday would not have the last word in the Gospel. The drama of Holy Week is a microcosm of the tension in our own lives. We teeter between praising Our Lord with our prayers and sacrifices and turning on him with our sinfulness. To live the coming Holy Week well, it will help to focus on Our Lord's sufferings and to recall that he went through all of this for each of us. May we never forget that beyond the Cross will be an empty tomb.

Catholic Trivia - Did you know?

"Doles" - The origin of doles in England is connected with funerals. After a Requiem Mass a feast was shared. This was to soften grief for widows and orphans and to make food available to the needy. More often than not the deceased willed the distribution of a dole. These doles were sometimes in the form of money or clothing.

"Bowing to the Speaker" - When a member of Parliament rises to speak in the House he bows in the direction of the Speaker. This is not out of respect for that office. Parliament first met in the Chapel of St Stephen in Westminster Palace, and the practice of bowing in the direction of the altar continues to this day.

Just for a Laugh...

Marty, a little boy, was in church one Easter Sunday with his mother Doris, when he started feeling sick. 'Mummy,' he inquired, 'can we leave now?' 'No,' his mother replied, 'the service isn't over yet.' 'Well, I think I'm about to throw up.' Marty announced. 'Then go out of the front door and around to the back of the church and throw up behind a bush.' said Doris. After about sixty seconds, Marty returned to his pew, alongside his mother. 'Did you throw up?' Marty's Mum asked quietly. 'Yes,' Marty answered, embarrassed. 'How could you have gone all the way to the back of the church and returned so quickly?' Doris demanded. 'I didn't have to go out of the church, Mummy. They have a box next to the front door that says, "For the Sick".'

Life is but a Weaving

"My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me.
I cannot choose the colours
He weaveth steadily.

Of't times He weaveth sorrow;
And I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper
And I the underside.

Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Will God unroll the canvas
And reveal the reason why.

The dark threads are as needful
In the weaver's skilful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned
He knows, He loves, He cares;
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives the very best to those
Who leave the choice to Him."
